Latest and best Collection of Church Music.
NOW READY,

THE GOLDEN LYRE:

A NEW Collection of Church Music adapted to the various metres now in use, together with a great variety of new Anthems, Sentences and Chants, for choirs, singing classes, musical associations, and social sacred music circles—by V C TAYLOR, author of "Taylor's Sacred Music Minstrel," "Choral Anthems," &c &c.

"We have explored its contents enough to dare to speak well of it. Mr Taylor is, himself, the author of a good part of the work, and he shows musical feeling, taste and invention, which make it no presumption in him to appear as a composer. * * * Mr Taylor's pieces are commended by their melody woven into all the four parts, by their expressiveness, which always varies with the subject, and by their uniformly artistic style. * * * And last, but not least, the work is more beautifully and clearly printed than any work which we remember of the kind"—N Y Tribune.

"We believe the book to be greatly superior to any that has preceded it, and we think it may claim to be better adapted to, and more suitable for, the use of choirs"—Saroni's Musical Times.

"We have examined this new collection of church music, and would add our favorable opinion of its merits, to the many encomiums it has elicited"—N Y Evangelist.

HENRY NIEDECKEN,

A PRACTICAL BOOK-BINDER of long experience, in all its branches, would most respectfully inform the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country, that he is prepared to bind any description of Books, being possessed of the best gilding and finishing tools, and keeping constantly on hand the first quality of binding material. He has found it necessary, by reason of increasing business, (consequent upon his low price and superior quality of work and materials,) to open another for the convenience of his "down town" friends, at the above mentioned place, where he will be happy to see his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with their patronage.

Bindery, Ruling and Blank Book Establishment,

Blank Books for banks, merchants, county clerks, recorders, auditors, treasurers, school commissioners, magistrates, insurance offices, &c, manufactured in the best manner, which in elegance, durability, and superiority of style and finish, will not be surpassed by any eastern manufacturer. In all his large blank books, he uses the improved patent mode of sewing, which gives strength, with great elasticity, and is incomparably superior to any other method for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. No additional charge is made for this improvement.

Machine Ruling.—Ruling of every description, for blank books, tax lists, &c, neatly and promptly executed.

Fancy Articles.—He is also prepared to make all kinds of fancy articles, such as ladies' and gentlemen's portfolios, caskets, card, spectacle and segar cases, pocket books, &c, with neatness and despatch.

Ruled Music Paper.—He will also keep on hand a supply of blank paper ruled for manuscript music, which he can sell at so low a price that it will be a great saving of time, labor and money, to buy this all ruled and ready for writing the music.

Albums, Magazines, Music Books, &c, will be bound with the greatest care, and in a neat and elegant style, to which the attention of the ladies is most particularly invited.

Bibles, Hymn, Prayer and School Books, are constantly kept on hand, as also STATIONERY, of all kinds, such as writing paper, ink, quills, steel pens, sealing wax, slates, writing books, and wafers, and a variety of books too numerous to mention.

GILT PICTURE FRAMES.

He is also in constant receipt, (imported direct from Germany by himself,) of a superior article of gilt frames, of all sizes, which he will sell at prices which cannot fail of suiting purchasers. He will be happy to show his goods and style of work to all who will favor him with a call, as he is confident that he can please every variety of taste. By good work and honest dealing, he expects to gain the patronage of the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country. oct12 d24

OR
MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE

BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.
Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.
AMERICAN EDITION.
One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.

The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.

The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.

The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.

The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.

It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

☞ Agents are wanted to circulate the above work. Several counties in Wisconsin not yet occupied. Address

The Loud Call.

There lived a Parson, as we're told,
But when or where we know not;
Who oft his snoring flock would scold,
Then telling that they to Heaven should go not;
But rather down to Hell be hurl'd,
If they would not abjure the world,
And [illegible] as dross, the "filthy mammon Gold!"

It chanced, at length, this Godly wight,
Who stoutly fought the Christian fight,
Elsewhere received a louder call;
What though the stipend was a trifle more—
To one who placed in wealth so little store,
This had no weight, you know, at all!
'Twas not the cash, oh no!
But 'twas the Lord commanded,
And though 'twas hard to go away,
Should he refuse the Lord to obey,
And be a careless servant branded?
No, no—so he must go.

The parting sabbath now arrived,
And all his simple folks contrived
To hear their Priest's farewell;
He prayed, then, long in righteous strain,
Bade them from darling sins refrain,
And in sweet concert dwell:
To hate the world, in holy ways be bold,
And shun the soul's seducer, glittering Gold!

The service o'er,
Before the door,
The parish gentry gathered round,
Smiling, the good man came among them—
Seized on their offered hands, and wrung them;
'A saint on earth,' the mothers cried,
Then rolled their eye-balls up and sighed,
And dropped their farewell curtsies to the ground

Behind the rest,
To bid the Priest good bye,
In nature's sooty jacket drest,
Old Cæsar came along, and mighty sly,
Bowing, the stick of ebony began
A confab with the gold despising man:
'Ah! how do good massa Parson?
I hope find him berry well?'
"Well, Cæsar, well, and how do you do?'
'Ah massa, Cæsar hardly tell,
Dis good long twenty year,
Wid you he worship here.
And now he sorry from your flock ye go?'
"Ah honest Cæsar, yes, it must be so;
I'm sorry, too,
That I am forced away:
But then, you know, 'twould never do,
The Lord's loud call, for me to disobey!'

'Who' massa, who you say?
Der Lord call you away'
Massa, how many pound a year,
Do people pay for preaching here?"
'Two hundred' ' 'To'der place gib any more?"
"Why Cæsar, yes—I think—they offer four."
'Ah! massa—may be 'tis the Lord who call—
But don't you think more loud you let him call,
Aye, call and call 'till all be blue,
'Fore you come back from four to two?
De Lord he holler 'till he dum.
'Fore massa Parson ebber come!'

Female Socialism in France.

I have often stated that what are called Socialist doctrines—that is, doctrines which proclaim that religion is a farce, property a robbery, marriage an infamous institution—were making great progress among the masses. Indeed, they are already professed by a majority of the working population of the great towns, and, it is to be feared, have spread among the peasantry to an extent greater than some people are willing to believe. Notwithstanding their mingled stupidity, injustice, and licentiousness, those doctrines create veritable fanatics, and find persons of both sexes who are willing to become martyrs for them—as if they had the sanction of Heaven, and were destined to promote the happiness of man. Even women—shocking to relate—openly profess them; nay, some have even devoted themselves to preaching with extraordinary fervor. Yesterday I was witness of a curious and painful instance of the fanaticism of some of these she-Socialists, in a trial of several persons for illegal associations, in which women are concerned. The judge asked a female, one of the accused, and who seemed to belong to a respectable class, "You are a Socialist?" "I am, citizen!" said she as if it were something to be proud of. "You are an adversary of the right of property?" "Citizen," she answered, "property has no rights—it is a robbery." "You object to marriage?" "I think it, citizen, an infamous thing, because it leads to the oppression of women by men." "But, if there were no marriage, society would be given up to prostitution?" "Call it what you please, citizen; but I maintain that man and woman should be allowed to follow their own inclinations unchecked by any law!" "But children would be illegitimate?" "So much the better, citizen!" "Who would be responsible for bringing them up?" "The community; the rearing of children is a charge which should not be thrown on either father or mother!" "Woman," cried the judge, trying in vain to check his indignation, "what you say is abominable!" "In your opinion it may be, citizen, but it is not in mine!" And the amiable creature seated herself with the swelling dignity of a tragedy Queen. And to think that such abominable principles as these are entertained by thousands and tens of thousands, aye, millions—verily it is no wonder that France is malade!—Paris Correspondent of the Britannia.

The above should be taken with several grains of abatement.

Political Prisoners in Rome.—A correspondent of a New York paper writes that Lewis Cass, Jr., American Charge to Rome, has proposed to the Papal authorities to send the prisoners confined in prison for political offences to California, himself engaging to pay three thousand dollars for their expenses in a French ship, which will leave Bordeaux for that destination in the month of February. The Cardinals have accepted his proposal, and agree to liberate these gentlemen nine days prior to the departure of the vessel in question, which affords them just sufficient time reach that seaport.

Fillmoreism.—The New York Day Book, a paper which is emulous of distinction as an organ of the New York Whig Commercial gospel, thus unequivically declares its preference, and, by fair inference, that of its masters, for naked, unadlterated Hunkerism:

"It cannot be denied that the old Hunkers, or democrats proper, are sounder and more national in their principles than any other party now in existence; and if the silver grays should unite with them in the election of United States Senator, they would give more general satisfaction than by sticking to their party and permitting a Seward whig to be chosen."

Major Auguste Davezac, a well known politician of New-York, died at New York city, on the morning of the 15th. The Post says: "He has filled various public stations with great credit, and was much beloved in private life."

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, FEB 28.

Intolerance of Opinion.

There is nothing which Americans more need to learn, than to be tolerant of each other's opinions. A man, sensible of his own fallibility, should respect the honest opinions of others. A man, conscious that he is in the right, can afford to bear contradiction, and have the truth and its advocates evil spoken of. That was a wise saying of Jefferson—Error may be safely tolerated, if reason is left free to combat it.

And yet this is a hard lesson to learn. And we, as a people, have been dull scholars in learning it. Take the religious world, and how little of charity exists between the different denominations! The teachers of the different sects manifest the same uncharitableness and rivalry, in their church relations, that men of the world do, in their political relations. And their anathemas are more bitter, and are less keenly felt, only because they exclude from future, instead of present rewards, and poor human nature is more alive to the sensible and temporal, than to the spiritual and eternal.

So our politicians excommunicate from their fellowship all who will not follow their teachings, and acknowledge their infallibility. To dissent from their wisdom is to be a heretic. Nor is it sufficient to adopt their creed. You must conform to their practice, and defend it at all hazards, however variant it may be with their professions. For instance, we agree with the creed of the Wisconsin Democracy, and nothing prevents the recognition of our orthodoxy, by the entire party, but the fact, that we insist, as honest men, they should be held to their professions, while they maintain that it was perfectly right for them to have been all this time playing possum.

But to bring an illustration nearer home.—Ever since we have edited a paper in Wisconsin, we have been an out-spoken advocate of Land Reform, including the doctrine of Land Limitation. Our principles were known to all. Well, a bill was brought before the Legislature embracing this principle, and as an honest man, we supported it. We expressed our real convictions in regard to it, without asking whether it would be popular or not. And what was the result? Why, some of our subscribers were angry, called us a land thief, threatened us with a loss of patronage—stop my paper—and acted toward us as if we were their slave—as if, by subscribing for the FREE DEMOCRAT they had bought up its Editor.—And some of this hard language, too, came from men who, last spring, were willing to give $25, to have us start a Daily paper!

Does it require half an eye to see, that such a course as this tends to destroy all independence in an Editor, and to make him a time-server, a truckler, a servile tool, and a mere weather-cock? And that a people who are so wanting in self-respect, or in respect for the rights of others, as to visit with their indignation, an Editor who expresses his own opinions, without fear or favor, deserve none but abject menials for their Editors? And are in a fair way to have only such? Had we not always held our paper open to the freest discussion of both sides of this, as of all other questions, there might be some apology for such somplaints. We trust the good sense of reflecting men will teach them, that the best way to meet error, is by manly argument.—If we had been so egregiously wrong, some one might have shown it through the columns of our paper.

We ask no sympathy from the public, on account of this Land Reform discussion For we have not been a very great sufferer by it. We have lost positively two subscribers by it.—possibly a third—and one because we are opposed to hanging men, and one on account of the Chronicles—five, in all—and we have gained about forty subscribers by it. We can stand such a loss and gain every week. But this does not alter the principle of intolerance. It is mental tyranny of the worst kind, to which we shall never yield an inch of space, or a moment of time.

☞ The Watertown Register says the Land Limitation law would "pull down and destroy the rights of others," would determine "the amount of property a man shall own," would be "plundering legislation," but "does not give the surplus to the landless"—and yet if "put upon our statute book it would remain a dead letter" [while it is doing all this mischief,] &c. &c.; "should have gone in for a division of the moneyed capital of the country," &c., but offers, when we do that, to "act as disbursing agent."

If the Register is not more correct and honest in pecuniary matters, than it is in the statement of the principles of the Land Limitation bill, now before the legislature, we should be afraid to trust it as a "disbursing agent."

Mr. Thurston, delegate from Oregon, says he knows of 20,000 who will [illegible] that territory, overland, the coming season.

☞ The Sentinel says our allusion to its notice of the Depere Advertiser's article on Land Limitation, is "as cool a piece of effrontery as it has seen." We publish the extract it quoted, and its own endorsement of it just as it stands in the Sentinel, that our readers may know just what the position of the Depere Advertiser is, which the Sentinel is "glad to see it take." If any thing can exceed the 'effrontery" of the Sentinel in trying to deny its own position, we should be "glad to see it."

LAND LIMITATION BILL.—We are glad to see that the Depere Advertiser, thus early takes ground against the Agrarian scheme which certain demagogues are trying to force upon the people of the State. The Advertiser says:

"We perceive a bill has been got up in the Legislature, limiting the amount of land one may acquire by purchase or otherwise. The idea of restraining land speculations, has been frequently agitated in this State, and in many instances advocated with much plausibility. But we apprehend that restrictions of this sort, if not entirely futile, would cause more injury than benefit."

CONDEMNED.—Charles Riggs, of Oberlin, who shot John Mann, dead, for supposed familiarity with his wife, has been tried and sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years. So a private letter informs us.

☞ The Wisconsin has quite a full report of the Dinner proceedings of the Railroad Festival, at Waukesha, and among the things we did not hear, it says we declined speaking on the ground that we "had not come prepared to make a speech." It did not occur to us, on hearing the speeches, that any of the Speakers, save Mr. Randall, had come prepared to make a speech, and it would have been rather out of place for us to make such an apology. What we did say was, that we had not come there to make a speech.

U. S. SENATORS.—The Massachusetts legislature was to try to elect a Senator, Wednesday, the 26th.

The New York legislature was trying to enact a law to enable them to elect a Senator last Tuesday, and any time thereafter.

The Ohio House of Representatives has indefinitely postponed the motion to go into an election of Senator.

THE LAST REPORT.—That Hon. Elisha Whittlesey, Comptroller of the U. S. Treasury, is to run for the Vice-Presidency, on the ticket with Scott.

LAND LIMITATION MEETING AT RACINE.—A Land Limitation meeting was held at Racine, last Saturday evening, in which Dr. Wilson, Mr. Payne, and Mr. Wyman, took part. The meeting adjourned to next Saturday evening, when the discussion is to be on the merits of the principle and practical operation of Land Limitation.

☞ The Odd Fellows had a Festival at Racine, last Friday afternoon and evening, and were addressed by Rev. A. C. Barry.

WHITE SLAVERY.—The last Democratic Review has an article attempting to show that the condition of the slaves of the South, is no worse than that of large classes of people at the North. The Buffalo Republic justly says:

"Of late, the Democratic Review has been a fitter exponent of the policy of the Emperor Nicholas, than the feelings and views of free American citizens."

☞ A child three years old, left by the mother in charge of a brother but 5 years old, was, last Sunday, so burned in Chicago, that it died the next morning.

☞ The Baltimore papers say Mr. Ritchie ought to be released from his printing contract, and paid $20,000 clear profit for his support of the Fugitive Slave Law. A pretty reason, for northern votes, isn't it?

☞ The Governor, Judge, and District Attorney, of New Mexico, are from Slave States. A Northern Administration with Southern principles.

REVIVALS.—Revivals of religion are in progress in New York City and Williamsburgh; Ansonia, Ct.; Ashtabula, Oxford, Portsmouth, Radnor, Pomeroy, and Springfield, Ohio; Boonville, Ind.; and Burlington, Iowa.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES IN WISCONSIN.—New School in connection with the Convention, 28, and one independent. Old School, 22.

☞ We are under obligations to Messrs. Wilson, Spooner, and Utley, of the Assembly, and Messrs. Gale, Giddings, and Heubschmann, of the Senate, for Legislative slips and papers.

Washington, Feb. 21.

The President's Message to the Senate was a lengthy affair, and gave rise to some animated speeches, in which Messrs. Clay, Hale, Mason, Dickinson and others participated.

The Message bids fair to re-open the slavery agitation in all its former malignancy.

The discussion in the Senate to-day shows Southern ultras to be extremely dissatisfied with the working of the laws. And the Free Soilers are against the President, as to his recommendations. It is thought there can be no action upon them at the present session for want of time.

The Message is highly satisfactory to the Compromise men.

VARIETY.

"I am so tired," said the big wheel to the little one. "Who spoke?" said the little wheel to the cart. "Not me—I always hold my tongue," said the cart, turning round the corner.

"Mr. Smith," said a little fellow the other evening to his sister's beau, "I wish you wouldn't praise our Ann Maria's eyes any more. You've made her so proud now, that she won't speak to cousin Laura, nor help mother the least bit."

"New York Mint Bill," said Mrs. Partington, laying down the paper in which she had been reading the proceedings of Congress, "do tell if Congress has to pay for all the mint they use in New York—why don't they go and gather it themselves?" and she put back her specks and looked shocked.

During a riot at a German ball, in Baltimore, a young German woman was shot thro' the arm. She got more in the ball line, than she bargained for.

Lives of great men all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us

Tic Doloreux.—"A curious disease, this tic doloreux," said Mr. Samuel Slack, a gentleman well posted up in general matters, "and one defying the skill of the ablest physicians, in many cases. I recollect that one of my neighbors died of it after a distressing illness of six weeks, but on a strict examination of the body, not a single tick could be found."

"Look out for the Vidder," is the parent's advice to the favorite son, when he begins to feel his corduroy. A gay dashing widow recently entangled, with her bewitching ringlets, a rich old gentleman in New York, whom she induced to part with real estate to the amount of $80,000, which sum she converted into bills of credit, and dashed off to Europe on a little holiday excursion. "O, these inveigling Vidders!" Oh! that we could have gone with her on the "holiday excursion!" We are old enough to begin to appreciate "vidders"—we are.

BODIES FOUND.—On Saturday last, the body of a man was found washed ashore near the foot of Washington street—supposed to be the body of the steward of the Canada, who was lost from that boat in the storm of last July.

On Monday, the body of a man was found floating in the river, near Peck's Warehouse. From appearances, he had been drowned several weeks.—Chicago Tribune.

The packet Ship DeWitt Clinton from Liverpool for New York, after being at sea six weeks, was obliged to put back into Cork.

The ship Ellen, with 170 passengers, from Galway for New York on the 13th of November finally put back into Belfast, almost a wreck, arriving on the 26th of January.—Her passengers were in a very distressed condition.

The steamship Ariel, from Glasgow for Dublin, broke her shaft in the same manner as the Atlantic, and reached port with difficulty.

The West India mail steamer Trent, encountered a terrible gale on the 15th of January, doing her considerable bamage.

General News.—Mr. John Walker, of Liverpool, is at present constructing a corrugated iron lighthouse for the American Government. It is to be fixed on one of the Keys off the coast of Florida. He has only contracted for the iron part of it, and the lantern is to be furnished by the Americans, who are to erect it.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Peter Duffy, occupied most all day yesterday, and till a late hour last evening, the Court not adjourning till between 10 and 11 o'clock.

The jury came in this this morning, being unable to agree, and were again charged by the Judge, when they again retired for deliberation.

This morning, James Maccaboy was placed on trial for illegal voting. He plead that he was ignorant of the laws and regulations of the State in regard to the qualifications of voters.

The jury after a short absence returned, unable to agree, when the defendant was admitted as a witness in the case, and, on his evidence, he was acquitted.

The trial of Lawson and wife, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, is down for this afternoon.

☞ Yesterday about noon, the steamer Sam Ward came up from Sheboygan, bound to Chicago. She started off in a hurry, leaving behind, the passengers, mail and express, and a prisoner, charged with obtaining money unlawfully, in custody of an officer, who had taken him on requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania.

☞ The Concert last evening was not as well attended as some we have seen. The singers are members of the civilized tribe of Brothertown Indians, and they are interesting, as remnants of a once mighty race, that are fast passing away. The history of their tribe, as related by one of them, is, that they are descended from the powerful tribes of the Pequots and Narragansets, that were the terror of the early settlers in New-England.—The nation, wasted by disease, scattered and disorganized by the death of their great chieftain, and driven away by the encroachments of the white man, removed to New-York, and from thence to Wisconsin, where they are tilling and cultivate the soil, and enjoy the rights and privileges of American citizens.

The performances were as good as could be expected from the company. They sung "psalm tunes" mostly, and were applauded in "Old Hundred," which, with several other old "stand bys" they "did up" in style.—We can't say much for the excellence of the singing, but were willing to tolerate much, in consideration of the unhappy fate of the race of which these are a few of the last and feeble members.

UP AGAIN. We see that our friend, S. S. Conover, is up for the office of City Marshal. He will make a good one, and we don't know but he stands a good chance to ring in. Well, if the city does not get a good Marshal, it won't be for want of enough disinterested persons who are willing to serve it in that capacity.

GETTING READY.—The Detroit Tribune says that the St. Louis is getting ready for a start; has been thoroughly repaired, painted and renovated, and will be on hand for the Lake trade the coming season.

The May-flower, Atlantic and Ocean, are being fixed up, and will soon commence their regular trips.

There is nothing now on the lower lakes to prevent navigation from opening, as the ice is clear from Buffalo Harbor, and nearly all the ports on Lake Erie.

BLISS'S COMPOUND COD LIVER OIL CANDY. About a year since, Mr. Bliss, a thorough educated Apothecary, of Springfield, Mass., introduced to the public his excellent Cod Liver Oil Candy, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, &c. So successful has this article proved, that numerous counterfeits have been put forth, not one of which is worth the paper that the candy is wrapped in. Our friends who are afflicted with complaints of the throat and chest, should see to it, that they procure the genuine article—which can be had only at S. JOHNSON'S, Jr., 151 East Water street.

COMMERCE OF OREGON.—During the time intervening between April 4th '48 and Oct. 1st 1850, 109 vessels, with a tonnage of 27,019, entered the port of Astoria, at the mouth of Columbia river, exclusive of government vessels, of which there were 9 arrivals. During the same time there have been built in the river two schooners, the Gen. Lane, of Oregon city, and the Pioneer, of Clatsop. The steamboat Columbia has also been built at Astoria, and is now plying between that place and Oregon city, and another is constructing at Milwaukee, on the Wahlamet.

Statement of the principal articles of Domestic Produce exported from the Columbia River during the above period—6,639,325 feet sawed Timber; 829,717 do square; 3,591 round Logs; 624,038 Shingles; 40 House frames, 3766 bbls. Flour; 1202 sacks do; 800 sacks 40 bbls 641 bgs. potatoes; 457 sacks oats; 679 bbls 1 ton 2 cases 16 bbs Salmon; 5200 lbs 4 boxes cheese; 8300 lbs. 28 bbls 66 kegs 2 firkins [illegible] Butter; besides, in various quantities, beef, pork, bread, apples, onions, cranberries, eggs, cordwood, firewood, &c., &c.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

Madison, Feb. 26—A. M.

Assembly.—Election of Regents of the University.—At 11 o'clock the two Houses met in convention for the election of five Regents of the University. On first vote no election—vote scattered among A. H. Smith, Rountree, Collins, Cyrus Woodman, A. C. Barry, and eight or ten others.

Second vote Smith and Wing elected. 3d vote Aigner and Ruggles elected.

The Bank Bill passed the Senate yesterday.

Feb. 27—A. M.

Assembly.—Bills were introduced as follows:

To promote Agricultural, Horticulture, and Mechanic and Household arts.

To give the right of appeal to Circuit Courts from decision of Commissioners for the sale of School Lands. Also several bills for State Roads.

Mr. Spooner introduced a bill supplementary to an act to incorporate the County of Waushara, passed at the present session, which gave rise to an animated debate—some members taking the ground that to pass, or entertain the supplementary bill which proposed to submit the matter to a vote of the people, would be in effect, a stultification of themselves in their passage of the previous act. The bill was entered and referred to a select committee.

A bill relative to swamp Lands, was introduced from the committee on State Lands.

The memorial to Congress for a cession of of the public lands to the States in which they lie, came back to the Senate amended, and was postponed one week.

A bill for the submission of the Bank question also came back from the Senate with a verbal amendment, which was agreed to, and with an amendment that the vote for or against shall be on the general ticket, instead of having a separate ballot-box, as proposed in the original bill, which, after a warm debate, was concurred in—34 to 29.

A bill defining the boundries of the village of Westfield, in Sauk Co. passed. Adjourned till 3 P. M.

Assembly.—Afternoon.—Bills passed.—To amend Section 56, Chapter 16 of Revised Statutes. Appropriating to A. G. Lull and Ira Gates for care of state prisoners. In relation to Insurance on Lives, and for the benefit of Married Women and other persons.

This bill provides that when the insurance is effected for the wife's benefit, the money shall go to the widow and not to the creditors.

To incorporate the Watertown & Waterloo Pland Road Co.

To appropriate to E. H. Rudd for engraving seals.

A bill for extension of right of suffrage to colored persons was laid on the table, 31 to 30.

Sholes bill is the special order for Monday evening next. Assembly adj'd.

Senate.—Petitions were presented on sundry local subjects. Also, for a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating drinks.

A resolution was adopted dispensing with the printing of the daily slips.

Bills introduced: By Mr. Rountree, to incorporate the Hazel Green Mining Company. Also, several local bills introduced and read twice.

Bills passed: To provide for the holding of terms of Circuit Court in certain counties. To lay out a State road, and to incorporate the village of Manitowoc.

Most of the forenoon was spent in discussing the Assembly bill to abolish the "one horse" Court system.

The bill was finally ordered to a third reading, Ayes 11, Noes 8.

Afternoon spent in disposing of business mostly of a local character.

Albany, Feb. 16.

The ice started in the river opposite the city last evening at about 4 o'clock. At the time there were three young men crossing, 2 of whom, named W. H. Tysdell and Robert Elder, went down and were drowned. The other succeeded in reaching the shore. The river is now clear opposite the city.

Trenton, N. J. Feb. 19.

New Jersey Legislature.—Six more unsuccessful ballots were had for United States Senator. Thirty-nine votes were necessary to a choice, and in each case Stockton received 38 (lacking only 1 vote of a choice) and Dayton 31. The joint meeting then adjourned until to-morrow.

ECLIPSES FOR 1851.—There will be four eclipses in 1851; two of the sun and two of the moon. A partial eclipse of the moon on the 17th of January, will be invisible on this continent. A similar eclipse on the sun 1st of February invisible in North America, but central and vertical in the Indian Ocean, near the Isle of Java. A partial eclipse of the moon, on the 18th of July, visible throughout the United States; first contact with a shadow, 1 o'clock, six min., middle of eclipse, 4 o'clock, 8 min.; mean time, morn., magnitude, of eclipse 8 2 5 digits on moon's southern limb. A total eclipse of the sun on the 28th of July, partially visible as follows: Beginning of eclipse, 7 o'clock, 30 min. A. M.; middle, 9 oclock, 37 min., A. M; end of clipse, 7 min. P. M. This eclipse will be total at Baffin's Bay, Labrador, a part of Greenland, and in the Atlantic Ocean, east of Newfoundland. Eclipse on the sun's northern limb.

☞ A Mr. Fenton has taken out a patent for the manufacture of a species of stone ware, made at Bennington, Vermont, from flint, feldspar, and quartz, which is ground fine, made into a paste, and then moulded into the desired forms. While baking it, a pure flint enamel is added, which is tinged with various delicate colors. It is said to be as cheap as common crockery, hard and tough, perfectly wholesome for any use of the kitchen or pantry, and without the enamel is white, very closely resembling that sort of composition of which statuettes are now made in France.

Omnibus Pun.—A few days since as one of those useful vehicles was wending its way through Chestnut street, a gentleman named Center suddenly pulled the check-string and alighted for the purpose of handing in a lady. One of the passengers asked, "What is Center about?" Quilp immediately answered—"Oh, merely going to take a gal-up." The querist floored.

Anecdote of Parson B.

Old Parson B——, who presided over a little flock in one of the back towns of the State of M———, was, without exception, the most eccentric divine we ever knew. His eccentricities were carried as far in the pulpit as out of it. An instance we will relate.

Among his church members was one who invariably made a practice of leaving the church ere the parson was two thirds through his sermon. This was practiced so long, that after a while it became a matter of course, and no one, save the divine seemed to notice it. And he at length notified Brother P——, that such a thing must, he felt assured, be needless, but P——, said that at that hour his family needed his services at home, and he must do it; nevertheless on leaving church he always took a roundabout course, which by some mysterious means, always brought him in close proximity with the village tavern, which he would enter "and thereby hangs a tale."

Parson B. ascertained from some source that P.'s object in leaving church was to obtain a "dram," and he determined to stop his leaving and disturbing the congregation in future, if such a thing was possible.

The next Sabbath Brother P. left his seat at the usual time and started for the door, when Parson B. exclaimed—

"Brother P!"

P. on being thus addressed, stopped short and gazed towards the pulpit.

"Brother P.," continued the parson, "there is no need of your leaving church at this time; as I passed the tavern this morning, I made arragements with the landlord to keep your toddy hot till church was out."

The surprise and mortification of the brother can hardly be imagined.

Chancellor Wallworth declares the Wheeling Bridge an obstruction, and recommends that it be raised twenty-eight feet. This recommendation, if cerried out, would involve the destruction of the present structure. Mr. Totten, U. S. Engineer, by order of the U. S. Supreme Court, has made a drawing and specification of the proposed height.

ADJOURNMENT OF LEGISLATURE.—The Madison Argus says, both Houses have agreed to adjourn on the 10th of March, and to take up no new business after the 1st (to-morrow.)

"What was that you were going to tell me to-day, when your father hushed you up?" said a mother to her son. "Well, ma, I see pa a hugging John Dean's wife!"

GREAT ARRIVAL OF

WINTER GOODS!

191 East Water st., Martin's New Block.

EXTRAORDINARY AND DAILY INCREASING ATTRACTIONS AT

NEW-YORK STORE.

Established in Milwaukee in May, 1849,

IN connection with one of the most extensive Importing Houses in New York city, for the purpose of establishing a large and permanent business, on the Cash system.

The proprietors of this already well known and popular establishment take this way of informing numerous patrons, in town and country, that they have made such arrangements to meet the exigencies of their rapidly increasing business, as will enable them to offer still greater inducements to purchasers Their Fall and Winter stock is beyond comparison the most extensive and varied

In the Western Country, embracing every article usually found in first class houses in the Atlantic cities

To those who have already dealt with them, they deem it unnecessary to allude to their ability and determination to undersell any other House west of New York city. To those who have not yet examined

THEIR STOCK OR PRICES,

they would say, through their connection in New-York, and an almost unlimited business, they are enabled to keep a resident buyer of great experience in New York and Boston markets, and many other goods are imported direct for their own trade in the original packages, thus securing many that cannot be found at any other establishment here.

New and Choice Styles of Goods,

Their arrangements are so complete that they can, and pledge themselves that they will sell every piece and style of goods as low as they can be bought in the most celebrated cheap stores in New York or Boston Every piece and style of goods in this establishment, being bought of first hands or at auction, or imported direct, and consequently from

25 to 30 PER CENT. LESS than Western Merchants pay for them—in fact we sell many styles of goods for less than western merchants pay for them in New York or Boston. Every article will be marked at the very lowest price, and will be guaranteed less in every instance than a similar article can be bought elsewhere

We annex the following list of prices—which we think can hardly fail to convince the public—that this is not one of the humbug pretensions of the day.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, Conn.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.

—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.

The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.

Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.

Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.

TO THE LADIES.

DYER'S WASHING, BLEACHING AND

CLEANSING FLUID!

The greatest labor-saving article yet discovered

BY its use, washing machines and boards and hard rubbing, are entirely dispensed with, and not one quarter of the labor is required to do the washing of a family. The Fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the most delicate fabric

The expense is not more than that of the soap ordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the great wear and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hard rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pounding barrel, is wholly dispensed with, and an immense saving is thus made. It is emphatically the female's friend ☞ Warranted to give perfect satisfaction or the money will be refunded.
